

Historic District Commission News Note

May 19, 2006

Design guidelines for properties within Plymouth's Historic District are now available. For the first time basic information with regard to alterations, repairs and new construction has been prepared by the Historic District Commission.

The draft document will be the subject of a public hearing on Wednesday, May 31, 2006 in the Plantation Room at Town Hall when owners, tenants and the public are invited to comment. Copies of the document are available on line at www.townhall.com and at the office of the commission at Town Hall.
